

Week Ending 30th December, 2011

This week has been very interesting, we had 5 entries and 2 exits during the week. All of the entries were shorts.

It is a negative looking week coming up and this is an advantage of being able to Trade CFD's – you can make a profit on falling prices

Have a great week all

Australian Stock Exchange:

Currency – AUD$

Entries: Aditya Birla, Alumina, Harvey Norman, Industrea, Newcrest Mining

Exits: Beach Energy, Programmed

For some reason I left Paladin off the reports for the last couple of weeks and said that it had exited – having a closer look at it I cannot determine why that happened, the last stop amendment for Paladin was to $2.22, and the price has not got back up that far, so Paladin is actually still an open position and it is included back into the report this week.

The colour coding we are currently using is as follows:
