

Week Ending 2nd March 2012

New York Stock Exchange has shown some strength this week with some strong upward movements in many areas. The trailing stops are working well with most of the open positions having their stops above the entry – locking in profit or nearly at the entry – reducing the trade risk in the position.

There were 6 entries last week

While I moved it from the Orders to Open Positions last week, I forgot to mention Qualcomm in the entries for the week, last week

Anadarko Petroleum, Euronext Incorporated (New York Stock Exchange), JDS Uniphase, Priceline, Patterson & Co, United Health Care were all entries for the week ended 17-02-03 – I had them in the exits.

I also didn't include Nvidia's entry & exit both in the same week for the week ending 17-02

Have a great week all
